Who We Are

OUR MISSION

Through free one-on-one or small group instruction we give individuals the opportunity to learn in an intimate, supportive environment where they can address their literacy gaps free from society's stamp of shame.

WANT TO VOLUNTEER?

This is one of the simplest ways to help out our cause. We believe the best way for our initiatives to be successful is for the community to actively get involved. This is an easy and efficient way of contributing to the great work we do at Ethos Literacy. Get in touch with any questions about how you can volunteer your time today!

Our Story

FOUNDED BY MARGARET BARKER

In 2007 Ethos Literacy was incorporated, then called Reading Works, and we received our IRS non-profit determination. Since 2009, we have served over 1400 adults. Ethos Literacy has won awards from the Library of Congress and the National Literacy Directory. Volunteers, staff, students, board members, and donors have all contributed to our success.

New Words

OUR STUDENT PUBLICATION

New Words is our student-written publication. Every month we ask that our students submit a piece of writing for the newspaper. This collective project really helps our students practice the skills that they are learning in their tutoring sessions. Check out our website to read some of the work our students have created!

Our Services

BASIC LITERACY

Learning to read and write is by no means an easy feat, but through cooperation of our students and the persistence of our tutors, we believe we can facilitate progress!

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Our goal is to help our students increase their vocabulary, improve pronunciation, and increase conversation.

GED/HISET PREP

The flexibility in scheduling that our program offers students allows them to pursue their GED without coming into conflict with their personal/work schedules.

CITIZENSHIP CLASS

The process of becoming a citizen can be stressful, but we are here you prepare for your citizenship test. We cover important U.S. history and government topics to help you feel more confident about acing the test.

We also offer math tutoring & computer basics.
